All valid applications postmarked on or before TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2010 will be entered in the random drawing. Applications postmarked after February 16, 2010 will be returned to the applicants.

The fee for Montana Residents is $30.00 and Non Residents is $55.00 (both include a $5 non-refundable drawing fee) and must accompany each application. The $25/$50 will be credited towards your float fee if you are a successful applicant. Unsuccessful applicants will receive a refund, unless you indicate above to donate your money to the Smith River Corridor Enhancement Account (CEA). The CEA is an account set up to use funds directly to protect Smith River State Park & River Corridor. If you are unsuccessful and choose to donate your money to the CEA, you can still use that money as a credit to float during the 2010 season if you end up floating with another permit holder or pick up a cancelled launch. If you are successful in obtaining a permit and fail to use or reschedule your permit credit during the 2010 float season, your fee will not be refunded. Successful permits are non-transferable and non-refundable. If you drew a permit successfully last year (2009) and did not float and did not properly cancel you are not eligible to apply this year. Each successful permit can have a maximum group size of 15 people including children Please consider reducing your group size to 8 persons or less
